GOVERNMENT Mortgage Bank
Offices 111 CALLE SAN MARTIN

This Bank will be open to the Public on all business days from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

It advances on real estate to be repaid at long dates.

It gives Mortgage Certificates (Cedulas Hipotecarios) for the amount of the loan it advances, which bear an interest equal to that collected by the Bank.

The value of property offered in mortgage shall not be under two thousand patacons, nor the loan be less than 500 fuertes.

No loan can exceed half the value of the property mortgaged.

The Mortgagor shall bind himself to pay an annual sum so long as the mortgage lasts, said sum to represent the interest on the sum lent the amortisation fund and commission to the Bank. This yearly sum shall be paid quarterly or half-yearly.

Series A—Quarterly
Mortgage for 20 years 117 days, 8 per cent interest 2 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series B—Quarterly
Mortgage for 27 years 270 days; 8 per cent interest, 1 per cent amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series C—Half-year y
Mortgage for 20 years 190 days; 8 per cent interest, 2 per cent amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Series D—Half-yearly
Mortage for 28 years 5 days; 8 per cent interest, 1 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Upon the full payment of the yearly sum stipulated in the Mortgage, both property and Mortgagor shall be freed from all further obligation.

The Mortgagor shall be at liberty to anticipate the payments and to discharge the mortgage, all or in part.

Applications for mortgages must be made in writing, specifying the property offered, accompanied by the title deeds, the receipts of the Contribucion Directa tax, and setting forth that the property is free from all incumbrance or if not the incumbrance that exists thereon, and which is to be paid off by the mortgage. The Secretary of the bank will supply applicants with the forms necessary as also the tables for amortization.

Quarterly mortgagors shall pay from 8th to 15th of each January, April, July and October, and half-yearly mortgagors shall pay between the 8th and 15th of each January and July.

With the amortization fund, mortgage certificates (cedulas) shall be redeemed at par by quarterly and half yearly drawings.

The mortgage Bank pays the interest on the quarterly cedulas or mortgage certificates between the 31st December and 6th January, the 31st March and 6th April, the 30th June and 6th July, the 30th September and 6th October every year, and on the half yearly cedulas from the 31st December to 15th January, and from 30th June to 15th July.

The Mortgage Bank can act between the capitalist and mortgagor, free of charge in the way of realizing the cedulas, and for this purpose will receive deposits without interest, which will receive a preference, and which sums will be deposited in the Provincial Bank

Cedulas are taken in deposit from 1 Cedula of 50 Patacons no lowest amount issued by the Bank) upwards.

BUENOS AIRES

The undersigned beg to advise their friends and the public in general that they have opened a

CENTRAL OFFICE

With Branch Offices in Europe and in the Provinces, and in all the most important departments of same, for the purpose of facilitating the purchase and sale of Government and private lands either for pasturage or agriculture.

They have collected together for this purpose all the requisite registers and maps, so that the exact whereabouts and extent of these lands can be studied, and have completed a special one of the province of Buenos Aires in which all the late sales and their sites are detailed. They also have copies of plans of National lands sold and for sale, both within and outside the exterior frontier line of the provinces of Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, and Cordova.

A thorough knowledge of the laws that govern the matter, and of the quality of the lands, is the best guarantee they can offer their customers.

They will take charge of the purchase or sale of large or small areas of land, and fraction them into suitable lots for colonists.

For this purpose they have special agents in Europe who will send out emigrants with means.

THE CLOSING OF THE PORT.

The sudden light that has broken on us all since Sunday comes through the yawning chasm of ruin before us; and out of the tomb of the National Government House a spectre has arisen that appalls and even overpowers the very strongest in this Republic of revolution. To trace to their proper sources the causes of such dire misfortune is perhaps beyond our ability; and yet, to merely chronicle events that disintegrate and break to pieces the very forms of our institutions, that ruin commerce, annihilate revenue, and sow broadcast wreck and ruin throughout the land—to write all this without a single comment or reflection, would be a tergiversation of the very motto which heads this paper for the last twenty years.

Is society a contract?—and is that contract to subsist merely at the will of a man or a party? Has not the mortifying spectacle of the country to-day some influence on the people's minds; and are we to be blamed, if, with our port blockaded, our railways pulled up, our telegraphs cut down, our suburbs infested with soldiers, and our streets barricaded, and our plazas open encampments—we ask, is this the Argentine Republic that we all loved and cherished? Is this the land of promise that we have extolled for so many years, whose bounteous advantages are held out as tempting offers to the surplus population of Europe? Is this the land of milk and honey where the penniless immigrant reaches before old age the position and independence of the millionaire? Is this the country where the starving and pauperized population of Southern Europe is invited in every language to come and dwell in: and is the whole make-up of the nation to be smashed to atoms at the will of an individual? Or, shall we take a sponge, blot out our promises, wipe out every hope and obligation, and, with a new appreciation of the country and its men, confess that all that has happened, and all that is happening is necessary—that we can only purchase our liberties at so dreadful a cost, and that our sorrows and our trials are far less due to the desperate struggles of party than to rash and ignorant council in times of profound peace?

The theme addresses all our better feelings, and brings with it hopes and fears that will stamp the present generation with their tremendous lesson. Every legitimate influence that could be brought to bear on the contending parties was invoked for peace, and the people who so fervently desired peace and the success of the negotiations were lulled into a security from which they have been so rudely awakened. The great Peace Demonstration through our streets, the conferences at the Government Houses, the meetings at the Bolsa, the mission to Rosario, and the flickering peace articles that appeared in our papers, blinked the public to the premeditated scheme which is now so obvious. Day followed day with fresh news of peace, and the weary dove returned so often to the window of our ark that the olive branch was no longer a sign the waters were subsiding. Patriotism at last swung from her moorings, and before 24 hours were about the whole character of the struggle appeared in its true light.

The capture of Flores on Monday morning, the ripping up of the rails on the Western Railway, and the closing of our port to the commerce of the world, are acts which cannot be misconstrued, and point as clearly as the sun at noonday to the desperate nature of the struggle in which the country is involved. But the question naturally arises, has the National Government, or has any Government a right to shut a port on five minutes' notice—to stop the loading or unloading of foreign steamers—to bring back from the roads hundreds of passengers who had paid their passage to Europe—to throw a shot over the bows of our lighters—and by a single scratch of the pen to lay them all up in a line? Can all this be done in a civilized country that upholds, respects and obeys the laws of nations? We think not; and we attribute these unheard-of inconveniences rather to the excessive zeal of subordinates than to the errors of the 'Chef' of Department. If such things are to be tolerated, then let us tear out the pages of Vattel and Puffendorf, and scatter to the winds the leaves of Wheaton.

Nor can the Foreign Ministers remain mute spectators of measures which amount to a declaration of war against the foreign commerce of the Plate. The French packet Congo, the Lamport and Holt steamer Maskelyne, the Lavarello steamer Sud America, and the Royal Mail steamer Tamar, are neutrals in the struggle that is going on in our suburbs; that the National Government has the power to blockade this port none can deny, but the blockade must be declared and made effective in strict accordance with the laws of nations, which provide reasonable time for the entry and departure of all foreign vessels; and we feel convinced that when the foreign ministers move in the matter the inconvenience will be removed. To us the energy of the National Government tactics since Sunday seems most remarkable, and as we read over the various edicts from the Chacarita, and hear of the movements of troops, the drawing of lines around the city, the capture of Matanzas, the raids on the Lomas de Zamora, and, for aught we know, the cutting off of even Quilmes, we are reminded of the line in the Æneid which so beautifully describes Neptune in his chariot, tired of controlling his impatient steeds, at last pouring forth all the reins from out his hands.

Manibusque omnes effundit habenas.

Since writing the foregoing we learn with pleasure that the foreign Ministers have obtained from President Avellaneda a modification of the decree, and all steamers in port will be allowed five days to discharge and ten to load, and all vessels in port ten to clear.

THE ÆNEID.

Yesterday morning there was a new turn to everything, and increased tension. Before daylight the picquets of the National troops at Flores reached inside of Lambaré and the Wanklyn Quinta. During the night fresh troops arrived at Flores from the Chacarita, and in all the rain yesterday six pieces of artillery were brought up, and mounted at the corner of the Flores Plaza. The picquets on the Flores Road allow a cart with one horse to pass, but if the cart has more than one, the others are taken to Flores.

At the Plaza Once de Setiembre the Provincial Government troops muster at least one thousand men and are quartered in Duggan's, Martinez de Hoz and Decoud's barracas. On the azotea of Martinez de Hoz three sentries are stationed as a look out, and they can command almost the whole Flores Road. The Flores bañado, owing to the rain, is almost impassable, but picquets have been sent out to Santa Catalina and Lomas, and the southern lines extend up to Quilmes.

During the night fortifications were thrown up in various streets; the ditch is six feet deep and well made, but the lines seem to be drawn very much inside.

The prices of everything in the market rose yesterday morning. One family bought 22 legs of mutton at 10 m|c each, which, after all, is not so dear, and the Cafe de Paris and some of the principal hotels laid in large stocks of provisions for perhaps a week. Vegetables very dear, and hay sold at 1500$ m|c per ton. At every breakfast table yesterday morning there was a council of war. Many of our subscribers walked round the fortifications yesterday, and they report them well made.

The Quilmes people came in in the morning the same as usual; but at 10 o'clock yesterday morning every one was looking for Mr. Crabtree, as the railway was stopped; yet passengers for San Pedro left in time, and passengers for Entre Rios went on board the Congo, sail to-day for Montevideo, and from thence get home.

All the small boats of the port are now ranged up at Belgrano, whatever that may mean.

Flour has advanced $6 m|c. per arrobe.

An English house sold yesterday 85 cases of preserved milk, and another a hundred cases of corned meat, which had remained for some time as a 'clavo.'

The general state of the city yesterday presented improvement, owing to the sensible decree stopping the firing off of bulletin bombas in the street. Due to the barricades in the streets many lines of tramways are stopped.

The arrival of cattle at the Corrales on Monday and yesterday was unusually large, and as appears by the note hereunder cattle now come in free of municipal tax. At Flores the soldiers give vales for beef and supplies, but no money.

All the various auctions called for to-day are postponed; and at the escribanias del Tribunal de Comercio, we regret to say, there are numerous 'letras' under protest.

On Monday night the Rifleros occupied the Retiro, which is a very commanding position. The 25 or 30 National soldiers in the place were allowed to leave with their arms, which shows how, spite of everything, the spirit of Conciliation breathes amongst the men.

At the Boca everything is in 'statu quo' and nothing in the shape of business going on. The Commisiones took up all the Nat. Guards they could find down there yesterday; nothing more. The silence of the grave reigns supreme in what was once the busiest haunt of Buenos Aires.

The Governor has sent the following circular to the officers in command of Provincial forces and all Provincial employees.

Buenos Ayres, June 6th

"The Governor of the Province being unable, owing to distance, to communicate his orders immediately as events arise, sends this circular, trusting that it will be implicitly obeyed.

"The Province has taken arms and mobilized its National Guard to defend its institutions, but not to attack the National authorities or laws.

"So long as the National forces do not fire the first shot, or provoke a fight, the President of the Republic is the Supreme authority and should be obeyed, unless he order hostile acts against or advise his subalterns to disobey the Provincial authorities.

"The Governor recommends special attention to this point, as he wishes others to take the responsibility of plunging the country into war.

"The property of the Nation within the Province must not be considered either as embargoed or confiscated but as left in our charge, to be returned to the National authorities.

"National employees and their families can come and go freely, and should be as much respected as the defenders of the province; but not so the national troops who may try to cross the camp to sustain the disobedience counselled, or attack the Provincial troops.

"So long as hostilities do not break out, these rules should be strictly obeyed, in spite of the decrees issued yesterday at the Chacarita by the President of the Republic, and the letter copied at foot of this, which may bring about a fight or the first order to spill Argentine blood.

C. TEJEDOR.

Intercepted Letter.

Chacarita, June 5th.

To Commander Godoy

Esteemed Commander

Colonel Arias is recruiting men at Mercedes. In case you should not have a sufficient force to attack him, give him the slip and come here with all speed, to join the National forces.

My object is that you should join us as soon as possible, dispersing any bodies of men you may meet, and seizing all the horses you can find, giving receipts to the owners. I give you full authority to carry out these orders.

Yours truly,
C. Pellegrini.

The Director of Mataderos has sent the following note to the Municipality:—

A squadron of troops of the Line from the Chacarita has seized all the horses, and is now doing the same on the other side of the river. I am now letting in free all the cattle, without waiting for the hour, so as to save them and guarantee the inhabitants meat at least for to-morrow.

Olivera Cesar.

The Police have prohibited the use of rockets in the city, to announce bulletins.

All night gangs of men were hard at work all round the city making ditches in the streets—Defensa, Peru Chacabuco, Cochabamba, Tacuari and Comercio, Buen Orden and Europa, Lima and Estados Unidos, Salta and Independencia, Entre Rios and Callao.

At Flores there were a couple of scares during the night, caused by the arrival of more National troops from the Chacarita, the rumble of the 'dread artillery' being conspicuous. The National troops at Flores yesterday were the 11th of the Line, 1st Cavalry, 6 guns, 2 mitrailleuses. The guns are at the eastern corner of the Plaza. The advanced scouts are at Almagro, but the picquets are only at Caballito. The Juez de Paz, Dn. Mateo Victorica, is collecting the National Guards. Most of the families in Flores are coming into town.

The Minister of War went to the Chacarita on Monday night and was expected in town yesterday, but did not come.

The tramways run freely to the Juzgado at Flores, and the only passengers who are interfered with are those known to be National Guards of Flores district.

The National Government has issued the following decree:—

Chacarita Camp, June 6th

The President of the Republic in Council decrees—

Art. 1. Don Manuel Olascoaga is hereby named Gefe Politico of Belgrano.

Art. 2. Let this be made known in General Orders.

AVELLANEDA
C. Pellegrini

To the families, doctors and apothecaries of Buenos Ayres

The Central Military Health Board, formed for the defence of Buenos Ayres, appeals to the patriotism and humane sentiments of the city families for lint, bandages and whatever might be useful to the Board. The Board's offices are in the Policia.

To the Inhabitants of Belgrano

In conformity with the decree of the President of the Republic, dated yesterday, the National Guards of Belgrano are called on to present themselves at the Comandancia Militar within 24 hours, to be enrolled and ready to serve the Nation in the present serious circumstances, as all patriotic Argentines are bound to do.

The Gefe Politico
Belgrano, June 6th

General Gainza, the new Minister of Militia, has his office in the Provincial Government House.

On Monday the National Government drew its balance from the National Bank.

The National Chamber of Deputies meets to-day at Belgrano.

Some of the National Guards of San Isidro ran away and have joined the Maipu Battalion, now 400 strong.

The port is without life: no vessels, or even boats, allowed in or out, and people are prohibited from going on the Mole. The Plata ironclad and the Parana watch the passenger and the Catalinas Moles: the Constitucion and Vigilante watch the Riachuelo and Ensenada: the Talita cruises up and down the whole coast.

Several of the Foreign Ministers went to the Chacarita yesterday to ask President Avellaneda to allow some time, as is customary, before putting on the blockade definitely and he consented.

News from Rosario was anxiously looked for yesterday.

In spite of an enormous quantity of Lares and Penates having arrived at Belgrano, the place is so crowded that hundreds have to sleep on the floor, the tables, or wherever they can, as there are not beds for half the present overflowing population.

Commander Guerrico is the new Captain of the Port, and he has commissioned Major Benetti to make an inventory of all the papers in the Capitania.

The Provincial Chambers have passed the following Law:—

Art. 1. The Executive is authorized to create and organise four battalions of foreign Volunteers and a regiment of artillery.

Art. 2. Costs to be defrayed as by Law of May 10th last.

These foreign battalions are already being organized.

The proposals made to General Roca for peace are—that he be elected President on the 12th; that he resign on the 13th, and that the electors will choose as vice-President whoever he names—probably either Irigoyen or Mitre.

Things are getting serious in Cordoba. There has been a fight already and several killed and wounded.

The Corps Diplomatique have decided that so long as the Supreme Federal Court remains in the city, they will remain also.

All the officers of the Head Quarters staff will be summoned to Belgrano to-day to receive orders.

The Centro America station on the Belgrano Tramway has been seized by 100 policemen, to prevent the horses being taken away.

ROSARIO.

Our own Correspondent.)

June 6th.

The news from Buenos Aires fell like a thunder-bolt on the people of Rosario. One of the political parties had deceived themselves into the belief that Buenos Aires at the last moment would give in; the other party, on the other hand, had a faith in the successful efforts if the Peace Committees. Both parties are disappointed. Ultra men on each side are very violent in their opinion and seem eager for war, but I believe these are few in number, and limited to a part of the official circle. General Roca, of course, remains very quiet, and there are no demonstrations of any kind made yet. If there be any measures adopted by the General and the authorities in Rosario, they are only known to a limited circle of his friends. The commanders of the Guardia Nacional in the camp have been called into town to confer with the Gefe Politico, and the Governor, Dr Iriondo, is expected down from Santa Fe. We see a few more officers in the streets than usual, but we may be sure that Colonel Nelson, commanding the troops in Rosario, will do nothing without orders from the National Government. The 10th Cavalry came down by train and was to take passage in the 'Interior' at once; but the order was countermanded. Events are happening with such rapidity that, before closing this letter, I may have to point an altered state of things. While I am writing, however, the town is in its ordinary state.

The gunboats have arrived in this port, and it is supposed the troops now in Rosario will be embarked, but up to this moment no preparations are visible. The telegraphs between Rosario and Buenos Ayres were not in working order last night.

It is worthy of observation the ups and downs of popularity in Republican countries. When Dr. Tejedor was selected by the Liberal party as their Candidate, he was by no means popular in the provinces; in fact we may say that he had no personal following, no partizans. Without going into a discussion on political Cause and Effect, as I have no desire to take part in the strife, I must state the fact that Dr. Tejedor has acquired a personal popularity that he himself never thought of. There can be no doubt whatever that at the present moment, throughout the Republic, Dr. Tejedor is the most popular man of the party opposed to General Roca.

The effect of the lamentable state of political affairs on the mercantile community is to depress every trade. Business has fallen of greatly. Last month's importations were comparatively small, and exports were insignificant, all appear to be desirous of laying on their oars, to wait for the consummation of events.

The retail trade has rebelled against the paper money; at all events, all species of merchandise have been advanced in price 25 per cent when paid in Provincial Bank paper. Mr. Casado, the Director of the Bank, is doing his best to prop up the institution, but his efforts are in vain, if we may judge from the fact that its paper is decreasing in value every day. The last balance shows that the Administration has called in upwards of one hundred thousand dollars of the emission, and will continue this policy. We shall see with what effect.

Man will manage to live and get on in even the most afnormal situations. That accounts for our being able to wade through our political and financial situation. Paper money at 33 per cent discount; Bolivian silver, half of it false; the good silver hoarded in the National Banks; sovereigns hoarded in the English Banks, and all other gold being smelt, bit, weighed and examined with a microscope before being received. Old Isaac of York could not have been more suspicious than are our banks when a gold ounce is offered them. If the eye of the effigy of Liberty squints a little, or a feather of the Mexican eagle is ruffled, or the indescribable animal of the Chilian ounce looks more than ordinarily savage, they are sure to be refused. Even gold is losing its value in our wretched times.

A devoted husband says that the phonograph is simply a machine that "talks back," and he has had one of that kind in his house ever since he was married

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

On the 2d inst. the Reading-room of the English Literary Society was filled with members to hear Mr. R. B. McKinlay's Essay on Robert Burns and his Writings.

Of the same nationality as the illustrious poet, the essayist felt proud in bringing before the community a proposition in defence of his eminent countryman, and every one who listened to the lecturer must congratulate him on the eloquent and able terms in which he held his ground. He sustained the following:—

That Robert Burns, judged by his writings, was not the immoral man that some of his critics have depicted him.

It was a quarter-past eight in the evening when Mr. McKinlay, at the request of the President, W. L. Jordan, Esq., F.R.G.S., began his paper, and during half an hour every ear was attentive to the speaker. He said that it was with great diffidence he attempted the defence of Burns, and that it was only through a conscientious belief that of all our poets he has been the most vilified (partly through enmity and partly through ignorance) that he felt encouraged to raise his voice in his favour. He rapidly sketched the life of the poet, dwelling very emphatically on what he termed the 'turning point in Burns' career,' when in 1781 he apprenticed himself to a cordwainer:—'At this period,' he said, 'we can easily imagine a raw youth, straight from his country home, with the smouldering fire of poetry just beginning to make itself felt in his bosom, being thrown into the company of, and daily communication with, youths as much inferior to himself as the 'Donkey is to the thoroughbred Arabian.' He, as a natural consequence, at once took precedence of them all; and, as it is the custom of inferior minds to adulate the superior, so it happened in the case with Burns. There was no want of adulation on the part of his companions, and he being young it pleased him to be recognised as the ruling spirit of the company. Here it was he first learned to fill his glass and mix without fear in a drunken squabble. Here were sown the seeds of that liking for conviviality which ever after distinguished our poet—conviviality not for the sake of the drink in itself, but rather for its accompaniments, conversation, interchange of ideas, mirth and jollity."

He illustrated his statement by several quotations from the poet's works, among the first the following lines from the well-known 'Tam O'Shanter'—

> But pleasures are like poppies spread,
> You seize the flower, its bloom is shed!
> Or like the snow-fall in the river,
> A moment white—then melts for ever;
> Or like the borealis race,
> That flit ere you can point their place;
> Or like the rainbow's lovely form,
> Evanishing amid the storm.

The essayist drew the attention of his hearers to these lines, requesting them to confess that a more moral sermon would be rare; and therefore strongly upheld that, at heart, Burns could not have been an immoral man.

He further drew a comparison of the poet with Milton, Byron and Goethe, stating that if Scotia's Bard had been stigmatized profane, these also have deserved an equal judgment, since there undeniably are passages in their respective writings to be found that tend as much towards immorality. Mr. McKinlay recorded more passages to prove his assertion, and the following is indeed appreciable, penned by the poet between the skilts of a plough at seeing that he should be forced to destroy Spring's choicest gem—a daisy:—

> Wee, modest crimson-tipped flower,
> Thou's met me in an evil hour;
> For I maun crush among the stone
> Thy slendern stem.
> To spare thee now is passed my powr,
> Thou bonny gem.

Mr. McKinlay resumed his seat amidst well-deserved applause, and after a short interval Mr. Hutchison rose and started the discussion. Referring to the manner in which the proposition was couched, he stated that he was quite ready to coincide with the Essayist, but that if he were permitted to take into consideration the comparison of the poet with his writings, he could not quite admit the virtue the lecturer wished to attribute to Robert Burns. The resolution was so worded that no one could possibly vote against it. He thought, also, that Burns' memory had never suffered any undeserved calumny or exaggerated vituperation, as has been the case with Byron, and that the defence brought forward by the Essayist was uncalled for, as there was no specially unjust accusation made against the poet. It was impossible to pronounce a verdict on Burns' moral character solely on the strength of his writings. His actions must be taken into consideration as well.

Profesor Pressinger then supported Mr. Hutchison's opinion, to the effect that the wordiug of the proposition left no room for discussion.

Mr. Edward Peake rose and spoke eloquently in favour of the poet, opposing the idea of the personal defects of a man being made to reflect on his writings, and cited the two famous lines from Shakespeare—

> The evil men do lives after them:
> The good is oft interred with their bones.

Mr W. Williams followed Mr Peake and sided with Essayist.

Mr Pearson also spoke eloquently in favour of the poet, and after him Mr Miguel Dinneen very ably applauded Burns' genius as being a great poet, but as to bear testimony to this morality, he would certainly desist.

The President next called on Mr Mckinlay to answer to the several objections, and on finishing, Mr Hutchison moved an amendment to the wording of the proposition, seconded by Professor Pressinger, namely that.

"The character of Burns has not been vilified but on the contrary he has received justice by his biographers.

Mr McKinlay rose to object to this amendment, and called the President's attention to the fact that, if he was referring to any person's head, and anyone were to interrupt him by drawing his attention to the feet, he had nothing to do with the feet whatever, but only with the head.

The amendment being seconded it was, however, put to the vote, resulting in a majority in favor of the Essayist of 27 votes against 10.

Next Mr MacKinlay's resolution was put to the vote, and met with no opposition whatever.

The President then rose, and congratulated the Essayist on his very able and eloquent delivery, stating that the paper did him credit and that the several quotations were very able tributes to the genius of the eminent bard of Scotland.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Things were rather quieter in the city yesterday, but it was the quiet of gloom and despair, and reminded us strongly of the worst days of the yellow fever plague. The half empty tramway cars gliding along were the only signs of life in the streets, except the men working at the ditches, to keep out the National Government troops. The price of meat rose yesterday, but not so much as expected, or so much as it certainly will to-day and to-morrow, if the peace negotiations, said to be still going on, do not lead to something. One of our most esteemed subscribers bought yesterday morning 20 legs of mutton at $10 m|c each, and two barrels of flour, and with this supply expects to weather the siege. Another paid $20 m|c for a moderately small cauliflower, and another bought a box of 'bacalao.' (We hope it wont make him too thirsty). Another went on the selling tack and disposed of a lot of tinned meat which he had on hands for the past six years. This meat was preserved at the Marcos Paz Meat Factory, 6 years ago, by Mr. Forbes, the Manager, who now has the well-known purveyor's establishment in Calle Cuyo. It speaks highly for Mr. Forbes to learn that the tinned meat is as fresh to-day as when he put it in the tins. In consequence of the sudden turn affairs have taken we have converted the new Standard cellar into an 'ad interim' larder; and sympathising subscribers can kindly substitute hams, turkeys, 'pate de foie gras,' red herrings, corned beef, or any other delicate solids they may choose, for the stimulating liquids they used to send us in happier and thirstier times.

The French mail steamer Congo is expected to sail this afternoon, and it was said yesterday that the French Consul expects to be able to get a mail off by her, although it will be difficult to manage, as the G.P.O. is shut up, and the only people visible yesterday about that once busy haunt were a lympatic-looking policeman and a porter who looked sad, and as if he thought that the glory of the place had departed.

The longest-legged reporter we have walked out a mile and a half beyond Barracas Bridge yesterday, and could see no sign of the city being invested on that side. He saw over 10,000 fine fat sheep driven in, and was told that as many more and a good lot of cattle were following. Enormous quantities of flour also came in from the mills in the Southern suburbs, and a large supply of hay. The South Plaza was as quiet as a graveyard; no trains, no produce, no brokers, no anything, except at the Southern Railway station, where two express engines had steam up, waiting for orders from the Provincial Government.

'No hay mal que por bien no venga.' The siege has done one good thing. Old Oliver's prayer to be delivered from his esteemed friend Sir Harry Vane was nothing in fervour to that we have uttered since we came to our new offices, to be delivered from the bulletin rockets of our opposite neighbour, El Porteño. We doubt if all the Krupp guns in and outside town could make a more ear-splitting bang than that miserable tube stuck up in the middle of the street, to fire off bombas. The police have come to the rescue in time to save us from incurable deafness. No more rockets or bombshells will be allowed for announcing bulletins, and the Porteño says it will get a bell. We prefer a gong: There is too much of the muff—in man, if not the 'muff,' about a bell. The gong is a noble instrument, and has far more effect on the public nerves. On the memorable night, during the Franco-German war, when the Standard gong was inaugurated (without speeches) it caused 3,000 people to collect in exactly three minutes, frightened a dozen horses into running away, and nearly killed a sick old lady in the hotel next door, by causing her to imagine that it was the knell that summoned her to heaven or to ——the Recoleta. No bombs, bells or rockets could do this.

The Entre Rios papers have discovered a man who minds his own business—Dr. Prado, the Finance Minister of that Province, who has an utter aversion to politics and devotes all his time to the duties of his post. Verily, a model Minister.

Another veteran of Independence died yesterday in the greatest misery—Juan F Rodriguez, 89 years of age.

There was, we hear, a shocking beefsteak squeeze in Flores yesterday morning, owing to all the meat and vegetables there being bought up for the National troops. All our Flores subscribers breakfasted on porridge yesterday.

The weather was as cold as Charity yesterday, and even the warmest advocates of peace and plenty had extremely blue noses. The grocers and purveyors are the only people who look happy these times. The enormous business these gentlemen are doing will enable them to retire on large fortunes when the siege is over.

The new Mint is now a barracks for the 2d National Guards. Mars rules in the Palace intended for Mercury, and Minerva shakes her head.

We regret to hear that Sr Olivera, the Post Master General, has resigned. No better man was ever at the head of the Argentine Post Office, and we hope to see him there again when the present unhappy times pass away. It is said the Government refuses to accept the resignation of this excellent official.

The closing of the port has caused a terrible hub-bub in commercial circles. Several foreign gunboats are expected in port to-day, amongst them H.M.S. Garnet, accompanying the Pacific Co's. steamer Magellan.

The Immigration Department has been removed to Belgrano. There is much anxiety as to what will be done with the thousands of Italian emigrants now on their way from Europe, if the port be not open before they arrive.

The furniture-van men are doing a rattling business. While some families are rushing into town, quite as many are rushing out, and the smashing of furniture going on is something awful, and the 'muebleros' are rubbing their hands. Such is life.

Professor Pressinger delivers a lecture on Republicanism at the Literary Society's Rooms to-night. The subject is a somewhat ticklish one at the present moment, but many people like to be tickled, especially with an idea. We're all going to civil war for an idea at present.

Contrary to general expectation, gold opened flat, and the sales cash of only 47,600 brought prices down 15 cents and held the market on time in check. There is a very powerful combination to keep the gold market quiet, and although outsiders are not selling, there is a great push to secure gold on time by merchants and others. Gold opened at 31.55, and closed at 31.40. For the end of the month 245,000 sold, opening at 31.55, and closing at 31.45. For the end of July 10,000 at 31.55, and 45,000 at 31.30. The sales of the day reached 347,600.

Cedulas, as a natural result, rule weak and dull and prices are down to 82. As for Nat. Stocks nothing doing, the large holders stand back, and it was said on 'Change that the coupon money for July is already deposited in the National Bank.

The nomination of the new Bank Directors was the talk of the market. Mr A Villate and Dn P Vela; the Chambers yesterday sanctioned the nominations.

Chevalier Hairby was on 'Change to-day, he goes on board his steamer to-morrow. The Maskelyne has a splendid list of passenger and will sail on 11th, the affair of the steamers being settled. The Italian steamer sailed to-day taking her passengers and mails, and the French mail sails to-morrow. A French gunboat will take off the mails. If the Post Office remains closed, the letters will be despatched at the Agency.

To-day all the Foreign Ministers went out to the encampment at Chacarita to see the President and Minister of Foreign Affairs about the rather serious question of the sudden closing of the port. The probabilities are that the rules laid down by Inter-National law will be observed, and all vessels will have sufficient time allowed to load and discharge.

At the River Plate Telegraph Office there is an unusually heavy business going on, and piles of telegrams coming and going. A telegram from New York gives dry hides lower.

Affairs on 'Change to-day ruled much calmer, and even in the bulletin line there was less pressure. Business, as a matter of course, is coming to a complete stand. Nothing doing in the produce markets, no trains, no sales, and in the shipping line the same. In point of fact, the Custom House might as well remain closed.

News from the camp is very scarce. Some farmers, arrived from the South, report that troops have reached Azul, but as all such information is uncertain, it is impossible to know the state of affairs outside. Immense droves of sheep brought inside to-day. All the Galpones at Railway ordered to be closed, and employees on some lines discharged.

As for exchange, nothing to report; some brokers say that bills were taken from Provincial Bank to-day at 40d, at which rate the Bank continues drawing.

Mr Durand's wool circular was out to-day, he reports arrivals to date 5,961,000 against 5,100,000 ar. last year. Stock to-day 61,000 ar.

Business has arrived at such a pause that our on 'Change column must necessarily become small by degrees; we shall, however, continue to report what is left of the market so long as there is in fact anything to report.

Mr Carminate, the gold broker, left for Europe in Italian steamer, and the well-known Argentine dealer Dn Angel M Mandez, sails to-morrow for Europe in Congo. Mr Thomas Taylor, of Concordia, left to-day for Montevideo; and Mr Barclay, of the leading English firm of Barclay, Campbell & Co., also goes to Montevideo.

A small estancia at Chascomus, 1190 squares, sold on Sunday for $1,002,500 m|c; rather a good sale.

We publish in another column a letter from Rosario, the freshest in town.

Mr. F. Requena has been named Oriental Consul in Concordia.

Yesterday there was a squale at the Catalina's mole; a lighter discharging wheat refused to stop until a Krupp gun was brought to bear on the barque, when the patron desisted.

The gold sales were:—
For cash 47,600 31.55-50-55-40
For June 30th 245,000 31.55-50-45-40-45
For July 31st 55,000 31.35-30
Sales 347,600.

Cedulas—

For June 30th 15,000 82½

There was a great deal of news stirring on 'Change at afterhours. The Foreign Ministers returned from Chacarita, and arranged the Port and steamer question. All steamers in port will be allowed ten days to discharge, and five days to load, and all vessels in port are allowed ten days to clear. This modifies the port closing decree somewhat. The Magellan comes up to-night in charge of Her Majesty's gunboat Garnet, and is allowed entry, having remained in Montevideo owing to blockade. But it seems no further steamer or vessel will be allowed to enter, and the port remains closed. The Silex leaves this evening for Montevideo, and takes passengers and mail; but the steamer expected up from Montevideo tomorrow morning will, they say, not be allowed in.

In gold there was very little done at afterhours, prices held about the same 31.40. Estimates were made to-day of the expenses daily of the Provincial Government, and some further sales of the new issue of bonds reported at 80½.

Hard dollar bonds, as appears by telegram in another column, fell in London on Monday 10 per cent.

Mr Olivero, Post Master General, resigned, but it was said on 'Change the Post Office is again open and letters for French mail will go forward as usual.

Respecting the peace negotiation the only news on 'Change was that given by the Libertad stating that Dr Leguizamon had returned being unable to effect anything. Dr Goyena is still up in Rosario.

Discount brokers report everything impossible, none of the banks discounting, and even the almaceneros refuse to sell now except for cash.

Mr Woodgate and others who visited the barricades this morning stated on 'Change that they are pretty much the same as thrown up in 1854.

Mr Newton informs us that representations were made to the Provincial Government to-day to try and get the Southern Railway trains to resume running.

Mr David Fahey is up from the South and one or two other estancieros from the West, but they have no camp advices fresher than last Saturday. It appears, however, pretty certain that Col. Arias has already three thousand men assembled.

At afterhours the following sales:—
Gold—
For cash 15,000 31.40
June 9 10,000 31.40
" 30 10,000 31.40

At 4 p.m. the market closed for cash and the end of month at 31.45 sellers and at 31.40 buyers.

Our special Boca reporter gives the following—

"Everything quiet about our vicinity. The news about Boca Railway having stopped running is not correct up to present moment, as the trains and tramways run as usual. The Captain of the Port's men at our port cleared yesterday, leaving place in charge of a couple of vigilantes.

"The Riachuelo is crowded with lighters, which are afraid of leaving, owing to Pilcomayo and other gunboats being outside to intercept them. I am afraid the poor people in our vicinity will suffer greatly if the 'asunto' lasts.

"Trenches are springing up on all sides, and one of the Tramway horses, in the car I was in, had the ill-luck to tumble into one of them at the corner of Cochabamba and Peru. No bones broken. Animal looking very contented at the bottom.

"The Boca is quite deserted, all the 'juventud' having left to enrol in the 'Guardia Nacional.'"

Our commercial advices from Rosario give the following:—

"Very little animation in the port. The river is falling slowly.

"The German barque Jerson was despatched to Rio Janeiro with 802 bales hay.

"German brig Teneriffe to Boston with 23,105 hides, 374 bales wool and 32 bales hair.

"The National schooner Herminia to Montevideo, to be there transhipped in steamer for Chile 675 bales tobacco.

"Amongst the many articles of provincial production brought down by the Railway during the week we may mention
831 bags flour from Mendoza
1335 boxes of dried fruit do
1694 bales tobacco from Tucuman
2193 tanned hides do
5658 cow hides do

"About 200 tons of wheat was despatched to Buenos Aires, and a couple of thousand bags of flour.

"We notice the arrival in Rosario of the first Santiago sugar seen here, a small consignment of 90 bags. It is fully equal to the Tucuman sugar, and settles the fact as to the capabilities of the province of Santiago for producing this regal article of commerce.

"Immigrants arrived during the week 35."

The following interesting statistics have been handed us for publication—

"A Parliamentary paper issued this week gives most interesting particulars of the growth of our shipping, and shows to what an extent steam is replacing sail. In 1869 our sailing vessels amounted in tonnage to 4,677,275 tons; in 1879 the tonnage had fallen to 3,918,676 tons—a decrease of 17 per cent; steamers in 1869, totalled 1,039,939 tons; in 1879, 2,331,157 tons—an increase of 124 per cent. The total number of vessels, sail and steam, was 21,881 in 1869; in 1879, 20,029 vessels. From this it is seen how much our vessels must have increased in size during the last ten years. There is noticeable, also, a considerable economy in labor, when comparing the two years, as whilst steam tonnage has more than doubled in the ten years, the number of men and boys employed shows an increase of only 34 per cent."

We extract the following from the English papers received by the mail—

"It is with great pleasure we note that at the last meeting of the Dublin Mansion House Committee a letter from Buenos Aires was read enclosing £1,000 in aid of the fund for relieving the Irish distress. We should like to see this example followed by the other S. American States.

"Much sympathy has been expressed here for the crew of the barque Mystery, owned by Mr C H Stewart, of London, who were brought to Liverpool by the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamer Cordillera. The privations which they endured before being taken up by the Cordillera seem to have been most severe, and a good deal of indignation has been expressed at the inhumanity of the Natal folks in not providing for the conveyance of the poor seafarers to Pernambuco.

"Baron de Worms, who married Luisa, daughter of the late Baron de Samuel, of Rio de Janeiro, has been returned to Parliament in the Conservative interest for Greenwich This is the constituency that Mr Gladstone has represented for the past eleven years."

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.
National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.
Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.
Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.
The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 30 per cent it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.
I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.
Extracts from Testimonials
From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall, Wales—
"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any servica in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

Stubborn Cough and Colds.

Yield promptly to the healing and curative properties of

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant

It loosens and promotes the expectoration of irritating matter, mitigates much pain and distress, and checks inflammation.

Bronchitis, Asthma and Throat Troubles are at once relieved by

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant

It removes constriction of the Bronchial Tubes, loosens phlegm, soothes and heals the mucous membrane, arrests any feverish tendency, and helps to forward a rapid cure.

Consumption, Pleurisy and Lung Affections are generally controlled and ameliorated by

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant

It saves the lungs from much irritation and distress, by relieving them of the irritating matters by which they are clogged; it also suppresses inflammation and gives the affected parts a chance to heal.

Whooping Cough, Croup, Hoarseness, and Loss of Voice are efficaciously treated by

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant

It removes difficulty of breathing and oppression in the throat or lungs, promotes the ejection of mucus, and subdues the violence of these complaints at the outset. It is a safe Family Curative of long-established reputation, and where promptly administered has enabled many to escape serious lung affections.
